

Alex has been a member at Figure 8 Skating Club for over 10 years and has always had a passion for figure skating and teaching kids about the sport. She strives to inspire her students during lessons by maintaining a fun and positive attitude, while still teaching them the skills of figure skating and hopes to help them achieve any goals they may have.