

Carey is committed to helping every skater meet or exceed their goals. She is very dedicated to building a strong relationship with her skaters and their families. She feels it's important to strive to achieve personal bests in order to develop life long skills as well as feel a sense of accomplishment.