

Morgan's love for figure skating and teaching, shines through in her lessons. She incorporates an atmosphere of "fun" in her lessons, and ensures that each of her students reach their full potential – while developing a genuine interest in the sport.

She is a full-time student at MacEwan University, and has a diploma in Television Broadcasting.