

Carey's coaching philosophy is to provide sound instruction and encouragement to help skaters be the best they can be and set goals, so skating success is achieved. She teaches commitment and dedication which in turn shapes skaters in the future and develops life skills.